At Government Degree College Kaffota, inclusive education practices are prioritized to ensure all students, especially those from the Hatti Scheduled Tribe and other socio-economically disadvantaged backgrounds, receive adequate academic support. The college recognizes the diverse learning paces and backgrounds of its students and has implemented remedial classes for slow learners and bridge courses for students taking up new subjects.

i. Remedial Classes for Slow Learners:

- These classes are designed to help students who need additional assistance in foundational subjects, particularly those who may face challenges adapting to the academic rigor of higher education.
- Faculty members provide targeted instruction to address specific difficulties students may face, including language proficiency and subject comprehension, with an emphasis on individual attention.
- By reinforcing core concepts, these sessions bridge learning gaps, boost confidence, and help students achieve better academic outcomes.
- Faculty members engage with students to understand their specific learning challenges and customize teaching methods accordingly.

ii. Bridge Courses for New Subjects:

- For students venturing into unfamiliar subjects or streams, bridge courses provide a foundational understanding, helping them acclimate to the course content and requirements.
- These courses are especially beneficial for students from rural, agrarian backgrounds who may have limited prior exposure to certain subjects.
- Topics include introductory sessions on subject basics, key terminology, and essential study skills to ease the transition and enhance their grasp of complex material.

By fostering an inclusive and supportive environment, Government Degree College Kaffota aims to reduce educational disparities, empowering students from all backgrounds to fully participate in academic life and pursue their aspirations with confidence.
